Everyday Nutritional Applications

Saturday, March 6, 2010

8 Hours of CEU

Learn about the importance of using nutrition in healthcare. Dr. John Brimhall will outline basic nutritional needs by teaching a very simple, specific approach and by reviewing symptoms and the need for related nutrition. There are many evaluation procedures, and the more pertinent ones – health scan, symptom survey, blood work with eWellness program, saliva testing will be discussed and demonstrated. Dr. Brimhall will send you home with enough nutritional knowledge and understanding to implement into your practice on Monday!

ABOUT DR. JOHN BRIMHALL:
